DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

Election/Restrictions

1. Newly submitted claims 27-38 are directed to an invention that is independent or distinct from the invention originally claimed for the following reasons: The claims 27-38 are directed towards a system, while the claims 1-8 are directed towards a method. Thus, under the process and apparatus section of MPEP 806.05(e), the inventive concepts are subject to a restriction requirement.

Since applicant has received an action on the merits for the originally presented invention, this invention has been constructively elected by original presentation for prosecution on the merits. Accordingly, claims 27-38 withdrawn from consideration as being directed to a non-elected invention. See 37 CFR 1.142(b) and MPEP § 821.03.

Applicant's January 27, 2004 Amendment and REMARKS obviate the previous rejection from Paper No. 14. Thus, this rejection is withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Iyengar et al., US 6,360,205.

Iyengar discloses a computer network, e.g. 112, 114, the Internet (Fig. 19), used to offer a plurality of real-time reservation deals comprising a product, i.e. the ticket, and service, i.e. delivery of the ticket, and price and non-price, e.g. seat selection, buying criteria. Additional buying criteria, e.g. time of departure arrival, may be provided by the seller. Iyengar does not disclose the terms correlating the deals. However, it would appear the deals are correlated, i.e. corresponding in similarity, when presented to the buyer when deciding on which seat to select for purchase. Nonetheless, to have correlated the deals for Iyengar would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art. The motivation for doing such would have been to provide alternative choices for a consumer when selecting which ticket to purchase. It is noted that these choices are common knowledge and notoriously well known in the ticket purchasing business environment.

3. Further pertinent references of interest are noted on the attached PTO-892.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 3627

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
